Dancing Girls Shock Secretary of State

LANGTRY'S OWN STORY OF 'VEIL DANCE' DINNER

Secretary of State Alfred P. Langtry today told his own story of the shocking occurrences at the banquet of the Great Barrington Chamber of Commerce as a result of which he, the principal speaker, left the banquet hall as soon as his remarks were finished.

The Secretary's story deals only with the milder events of the early part of the evening. It is understood much happened after he left. Concerning those happenings one hundred and forty-three of the one hundred and forty-four men who witnessed them had not a word to say.

The one hundred and forty-four told the whole story of how three cabaret girls imported for the occasion amused those present.

Here is Mr. Langtry's story of what he saw:

Asquith Declares Great Britain May Blockade Germany

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The possibility of a British blockade of the German coast was voiced in the House of Commons today by Premier Asquith. The premier said that the British government is considering drastic measures to paralyze the small remnant of German trade as a result of "the grant breaches of the rules of international warfare" by Germany.

The premier was interpellated upon the question of contrabands and it was in reply to these questions that he revealed the fact that the government has under consideration momentous retaliatory measures against Germany.

HEAR GERMANS HAVE GIVEN UP INSTERBURG

LONDON, Feb. 11.—While the recent sanguinary fighting in the great eastern war theatre is occurring, there now is in the Carpathian passes, military experts of the contending powers are closely watching the situation in East Prussia, where the Germans and Russians are now locked in a battle over a front of fifty miles, stretching southward from the Meuse river.

According to the expert of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, thirty thousand men are engaged in this conflict, which may be called the "battle of three years." It is looking bright on the banks of the Meuse, where the Scheldt and Scheldt rivers. The heaviest fighting is now in the district about Lodz.

This town is now held by the Russians, but the German front line is the form of a half circle around it. On the plain between it and the Meuse.

BANK DEALINGS OF MANFIELD TOLD IN COURT

Harry K. Manfield, proprietor of Fenwick Inn and defendant in the case of Elizabeth M. Ryan's $50,000 breach of promise suit, owns stocks worth between $15,000 and $20,000, according to testimony in the "Toodles" case today.

Thomas E. Marchion, auditor in the case of Ryan, testified that he had delivered securities worth about $15,000 to Manfield, between September, 1911, and last November, and had received from him securities worth about $20,000.

The financial evidence was followed by testimony of John Rafferty, a former waiter at Fenwick, who told of serving meals to Miss Ryan and Miss Irene Katherine Griffin, the Boston nurse, who attended Miss Ryan during an illness at the inn. Miss Ryan died of typhoid fever, a day and night of daily quarrels between her and Manfield.

The first witness today was Timothy P. Mahoney, Manfield's former chauffeur.

WOMEN CROWD TO COURT.

There was a large crowd of women among the spectators who crowded into the court room and there were women among the attorneys who were unable to find seats.

Manfield had been a witness earlier in the case, a witness for the defense. It was that time he was asked if he remembered or not, he said, "I don't remember."

POSTOFFICE AUTHORITIES HUNTING 'MAN HIGHER UP' IN COE RANSOM THREATS

The arrest of a man connected with the "ransom note" in the case of Henry Charles Coe, Jr., the missing Standard Oil salesman, may be expected soon, it was today announced by detectives working on the case.

The note threatened that Coe would be slain unless $1,000 ransom were paid. Chief Postoffice Inspector Ledochowski said today that he has recovered the note and that an arrest is certain on the part of the federal authorities.

The detectives said they could have arrested, before this, one of two men they know are connected with the writing and sending of the note, that they have delayed the arrest so as to implicate a "man higher up" in the affair, that they believe the note is an attempt at extortion, that they do not believe Coe is held captive by the writers, but that they expect to make an arrest within a short time.

LEDOCHOWSKI NEW HEAD OF JESUITS

ROME, Feb. 11.—The Rev. Father Ledochowski of the Polish order of Jesuits, was today elected head of the Jesuit order.

Before this elevation the Rev. Father Stanislaus Ledochowski was General of the Polish Jesuits. He is forty-eight years old and entered the order in 1909. His accession to the head of the 12,000 Jesuits throughout the world followed a long period of fasting and meditation as the part of the delegates to the conference.

The new head of the order of the Jesuit order succeeded Father Francis Wernz, who died shortly after Pope Pius X. A General of the Jesuits is elected for life and from the day of his election he is absolute ruler of the order. On account of this the attendance at the assembly at the election was smaller than usual.

Join the Bundle Day Movement NOW

The Boston AMERICAN'S BUNDLE DAY suggestion has met with instant approval.

Skilled students of sociological conditions declare that BUNDLE DAY is one of the most practical ideas intended for the relief of those upon whom the hard Winter has pressed most severely.

No cash contributions are wanted or required. Not a cent will be asked or taken from anyone. To this cause you can contribute that which will cause you no loss and will do great good to deserving persons or families.

Search your homes for unused clothing, hats and shoes, for men, women and children. Elect yourself chairman of a rummage committee and begin now. When you have made a cleanup, assemble your findings in a bundle and the BUNDLE DAY Committee will do the rest. The BUNDLE DAY Committee will call for your contribution, sort it and distribute each article to those to whom it will do the most good.

Few of us but have tucked away at home an old suit or skirt or pair of boots or some half-worn underclothing that is cluttering up the closet and might keep some poor fellow or destitute woman or child warm in this bitter weather. Dig it out, make up a bundle. This bundle will be called for and placed where it will do the most good.

The BUNDLE DAY Committee, comprising leading Boston men and women is now forming. Its announcements and plans will be published in the AMERICAN from day to day.

Allied Airmen in Dusseldorf Raid

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Rotterdam reports a successful air raid by the allies over Dusseldorf.

The raiders discovered this route and dropped bombs upon and set fire to it.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—President Wilson will stand pat on the ship purchase bill. It was announced at the White House today. The compromise will be acceptable only if the bill as it now stands, will be considered by the administration and the bill will go to the committee on the floor.

If the measure is defeated at the present session of the Senate, it is likely to be introduced in the next House.

It was deemed significant today that the President had been urged by the House to stand pat on the ship purchase bill. The President had been urged by the House to stand pat on the ship purchase bill. The President had been urged by the House to stand pat on the ship purchase bill.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—On a voyage that may prove her last and one that may involve the United States in serious international complications, the American steamer Dacia sailed from this port today.

With the Dacia sailing the ship was still under American flag and stripes were flying full forward and aft. Captain McDonald said on board that the ship if there was any doubt as to the ability of British warships or war vessels at other nations to distinguish the colors.

The Dacia sailed with an entire American crew, with the exception of seven men. Four of these were Italians and the other three were British. The Dacia is bound for Bremen, but her crew of 110 men, under the command of Captain McDonald, was confident that he would deliver his cargo safely by bringing his vessel back to America.

BERLIN, Feb. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—A series of important war conferences last night at the imperial palace here, during which important phases of the military and internal situation were discussed.

The emperor informed his visitors, it is reported, that he was thoroughly satisfied with the position of his army and its equipment as he found them on his tour of inspection in the eastern part of the front, and in view of the fact that the German troops were in a position to take the offensive at any time.

The emperor's visit to the front was regarded as a highly important move, and it was expected that he would return to Berlin in the next few days. He is expected to return to Berlin in the next few days.

MOTHERS' FIGHT WON BY TEACHERS

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The long-fought battle between the Board of Education and the teacher-mothers in the public schools has ended in a sweeping victory for the women, who have asserted their right to have a voice in the selection of teachers. The teachers' union, including Mrs. Lora M. Wagner, who had been dismissed because of such absence, are referred to by the charges of neglect of duty being withdrawn.

The capitulation of the board was completed by the announcement of Commissioner Wingate that the committee on by-laws would undoubtedly recommend an amendment giving teachers the right of leave of absence for a certain length of time before and after the birth of a child.

FATALLY BURNED GETTING MEAL

Mrs. Sarah A. Simonds, seventy years old, while preparing breakfast for her eighty-eight-year-old husband in their home at No. 12 Morris street, Somerville, today, went too near the stove and her clothing caught fire.

The woman ran frantically through the apartment, her husband seeking to catch her. He finally succeeded in throwing her to the floor and smothering the flames with a rug.

Mrs. Simonds was burned about the hands. The couple have a married daughter in Lexington.

FOR HELPLESS BELGIUM

If, after this, one Belgian goes without a full meal whilst thousands of ladages are living in luxury from Canterbury to San Francisco and from Biarritz to Venice, there is really nothing more to be said for man's caprice of charity. I therefore make, not an appeal, but a claim on the Belgium which itself is too gracious to make for herself.

The greatest philanthropic feat ever known in the history of civilization—32 steamships—was set in motion when the first echoes of distress were heard from Belgium, and this fleet, organized by the Belgian Commission for Relief, has been carrying supplies from America since that day to this and will continue to carry supplies as long as the Belgians need them.

The New England Belgian Relief Committee will send another ship with food and clothing about March 1. The situation is a desperate one.

ARREST BUTLER IN POISON PLOT

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 11.—An effort to poison the family of Union National Bethel, senior vice-president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, and president of the New York Telephone Company, was revealed when Isaac B. Green, who had been butler in the Bethel home, 31 No. 278 Upper Mountain avenue, Montclair, N. J., was arrested there and committed to jail without bail.

Mrs. Bethel and her son, Joseph Bethel, eight years old, became violently ill last Friday morning. They had eaten a cornflakes breakfast, which had been poisoned, and an examination showed that the cereal they had eaten at breakfast had been poisoned with croton oil.

It was said that Mrs. Bethell and her son have recovered, although a one time they were in danger of death. Mr. Bethell was absent from the city when they were poisoned.

G. C. HESTER OF WAR HORROR

Gilbert H. Hester, head of the military department of H. H. White Company, has just returned from the war zone, where he was with many relics of the battle field.

For days, he was over different relics of the battle field, including a broken piece of machine gun, cartridges, fragments of a tank, and a German helmet and many other things.

His notes about the war zone, which are published in the official report by the French government, show that he was not with any evidence of this war zone, but with a great deal of evidence of the war zone.

SAFETY MEDAL IS GIVEN ELEVATED

The Boston Elevated Railway Company presented the Brady Gold Medal, for having made a better record than any other street railway in the United States in the conservation of the safety and health of the public.

The presentation was made by Professor Frederic H. Hutton and was accepted in behalf of the elevated by Major-General William A. Hancock, president of the company.

The Boston Elevated receives this medal with pride and with satisfaction, not alone for itself and its officials, but also for the great community which it serves, declared President Hancock.

Russell K. Barnes, general attorney of the elevated, was presented with the medal by Major-General Hancock. The medal is a gold medal, and is given to the company as a reward for its record in the conservation of the safety and health of the public.
